

Buckeye Extravaganza Class Rules

Entries in this class must be properly enrolled into the Buckeye Extravaganza Program.

- If not an original slot owner, you may be able to purchase an entry into the class from a slot owner. For a list of slot owners, contact the Buckeye Extravaganza Committee.
- These classes are NOT USEF or AHA recognized; therefore these classes do NOT count for qualification points for either USEF or AHA programs.
- All horses at a recognized USEF show may be drug tested, and the drug rules of AHA/USEF are applicable.
- Horses entered into this class must be registered with AHA, with proof of registration supplied to the competition or a confirmation letter from AHA.
- Prize money will be paid within 30 days of the show, and sent to the owner of the slot (or to the purchaser of the entry, if the Buckeye Extravaganza Program has received prior written notification of the sale of the entry).

Prize money will be paid out as follows 50% 1st; 20% 2nd; 10% 3rd-5th.

- The rules and specifications set forth in the current USEF rulebook will be utilized unless otherwise specified and noted hereinafter.
- Entries will be shown and judged under the current class specifications set forth in the Arabian division of the USEF Rule Book for the specific junior horse class.

Class Specifications

Arabian and Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian English Junior Horse Specifications: (five years and under) To be shown at a walk, normal trot, and canter. To be shown in a light Show-type bridle; either single curb or single snaffle (defined as an unwrapped, smooth, rounded snaffle bit 3/8" to 3/4" diameter as measured one inch from the ring with gradual decrease to the center of the snaffle, half cheeks permitted), curb and snaffle or Pelham bit. To be judge on quality performance, attitude and manners.

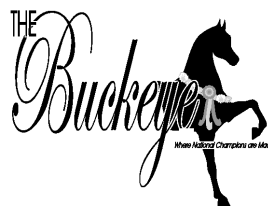

Arabian and Half-Arabian/Anglo-Arabian Western Junior Horse Specifications (five years and under) To be shown at a walk, jog-trot, and lope. To be showing in a snaffle bit or hackamore. To be judged on substance, quality, performance and manners.

Enrollment Procedures:

- Applicant must complete and sign a Buckeye Junior Horse Extravaganza Contract. The contract will be not effective until signed by a representative of the Buckeye Extravaganza Program.
- A class must be designated at time of enrollment and or upon signing the contract.
- Refer to the Buckeye Junior Horse Extravaganza Contract as to the cost to enroll into this program.
- Applicant must return signed contract with appropriate down payment for specified amount, which is based on whatever level is applicable.
- Enrollment may be paid in full.
- Slot owners are legally responsible to fulfill the contract after signing.
- Slot owner has the first right of refusal each year to renew his rights as a slot owner at the same fee he paid for it originally, as long as slot owner participated by all rules of the agreement previously signed.
- If the slot owner does not repurchase the slot by timely payment in full, the slot will automatically go back to the Buckeye Extravaganza Program and may be sold.
- The failure to timely pay the annual renewal fee, will terminate all of the Slot owner's rights to the slot, and all partial payments will be forfeited.
- Slot ownership is NON-TRANSFERABLE.
- An entry into a specific class may be sold, as long as the Buckeye Extravaganza Program receives written notice of the name of the purchaser of the entry, prior to the conduct of the class.
- The Buckeye Extravaganza Committee will decide all disputes and or issues that may arise and their decision shall be final.
- If there should be any disputes arise concerning the rules of the program, and/or classes, the decision of the Buckeye Extravaganza Committee will be final.
- After a horse has won a specific Extravaganza class it is not eligible to show in that class again.

The Buckeye Extravaganza committee has the right to amend these rules from time to time as it deems necessary, and may terminate the Buckeye Junior Horse Extravaganza program, or any portion thereof, at anytime at their sole discretion.

The Buckeye Sweepstakes, the Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee, Extravaganza Committee, the Buckeye Arabian and Half-Arabian Alliance and the Buckeye officers and Its employees, (collectively, hereinafter known as "the Buckeye") shall not be held liable in any manner, whether in damages or otherwise in connection with this program.

Buckeye AOTR Challenge Rules

Entries in this class must be properly enrolled into the Buckeye AOTR Challenge Program.

Enrollment Procedures:

- Applicant must complete and sign a Buckeye Challenge Enrollment form.
- A class must be designated at time of enrollment and or upon signing the contract.
- Refer to the Buckeye Challenge Enrollment form as to the cost to enroll into this program.
- Applicant must return the signed form with the required payment as specified in the form. Enrollment may be paid in full.
- Enrollment fee does not include the processing fee, entry fees, post entry fees, drug fees, stall fees, etc
- Substitution of horses is prohibited
- These classes are NOT USEF or AHA recognized; therefore these classes do NOT count for qualification points for either USEF or AHA programs.
- All horses at a recognized USEF show may be drug tested, and the drug rules of AHA/USEF are applicable.
- Horses entered into this class must be registered with AHA, CAHR, or CPAR with proof of registration supplied to the competition or a confirmation letter from AHA.
- Horses enrolled into this class must be shown by the Amateur Owner in order to compete.
- Horses enrolled into this class may be any age.
- Prize money will be paid within 30 days of the show
- If less than ten horses are entered into a specific class, the Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee has the right to cancel the class. You are entitled to a refund or may transfer your entry into another class. The Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee will retain a $15.00 processing fee when a class is cancelled.
- The judging system utilized by this program will be the same program used by the Buckeye Sweepstakes Horse show.

The rules and specifications set forth in the current USEF rulebook will be utilized unless otherwise specified and noted hereinafter.

Entries will be shown and judged under the current class specifications set forth in the Arabian division of the USEF Rule Book for the specific AOTR class. Prize money will be paid out as follows: 50% 1st; 20% 2nd; 10% 3rd-5th.

- The Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee will decide all disputes and or issues that may arise and their decision shall be final.
- If there should be any disputes arise concerning the rules of the program, and/or classes, the decision of the Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee will be final.

The Buckeye Sweepstakes Show committee has the right to amend these rules from time to time as it deems necessary, and may terminate the Buckeye AOTR Challenge program, or any portion thereof, at any time at their sole discretion.

The Buckeye Sweepstakes, the Buckeye Sweepstakes Show Committee, Extravaganza Committee, the Buckeye Arabian and Half-Arabian Alliance and the Buckeye officers and Its employees, (collectively, hereinafter known as "the Buckeye") shall not be held liable in any manner, whether in damages or otherwise in connection with this program.

Arabian and Half-Arabian Western Pleasure AOTR challenge class specifications: To be shown at a walk, jog-trot and lope. To be judged on manners, performance, suitability of horse to rider, substance, quality and conformation.

Arabian and Half-Arabian Hunter Pleasure AOTR challenge class specifications: To be shown at a walk, trot, canter and hand gallop both directions of the ring. To stand quietly and back readily. To be judged on manners, performance, suitability as a Hunter, quality and conformation.

Arabian and Half-Arabian Country Pleasure AOTR Challenge class specifications: To be shown at a walk, normal trot, and canter. It is mandatory that horses be asked to halt on the rail, stand quietly, back, and walk off on a loose rein at least one direction of the ring. To be judged on attitude, manners, performance, quality, conformation and suitability of horse to rider. It is imperative that the horse give the distinct appearance of being a pleasure to ride. A quiet, responsive mouth is paramount.

Arabian and Half-Arabian English Pleasure AOTR Challenge class specifications: To be shown at a walk, normal trot and canter. To be judged on manners, performance, attitude, quality, suitability of horse to rider, and conformation.